

IN-PERSON EVENT

SHIP NAVIGATION AND VOYAGE OPTIMIZATION

 Nov 15-16, 2022  Athens, GreeceLEARN MORE

Statistically, every year, more than 5,000 shipping containers are lost overboard, not to mention ships being damaged, crews injured, and lives lost. That makes safe navigation and optimized ship routes essential for ship and crew safety. But efficient ship routes and navigation are not only crucial for safety, it benefits fuel and time which helps owners to meet financial and environmental targets. In two-day event Ship Navigation and Voyage Optimization our aim is to discuss more the following topics:

- CII and the charter contract
- How to get the best out of the CII ratings
- The future of the CII – lookout towards 2030 and beyond
- Autonomous ship reality
- Ship performance models
- Voyage efficiency for CII compliance
- Voyage performance monitoring
- Fuel consumption and time-saving by route planning
- Maximum efficiency by analyzing data
- Ship speed variation
- GNSS Vulnerabilities
- Resilient PNT (Positioning, Navigation, and Timing)
- Hybrid System of Satellite Communications Technology
- Cyber security resilience for safe ship voyage
- Weather routing methods for voyage efficiency
- Future AI-based navigation systems
- Port call optimization
- Practices for efficient ship navigation
- Ship connectivity as a navigational aid
- 5G based remote control and navigation
- Dynamic positioning systems

Our mission is to identify cost-effective solutions to enhance ship safety and efficiency while protecting the environment. Happy to welcome you to two days of discussions.

MEDITERRANEAN SHIPPING SUMMIT 2021 ISTANBUL, TURKEY

About Previous Event

Mediterranean sea is considered one of the busiest shipping lane all around the globe. It approximately involves 80% of the Europe trade by volume. Mediterranean sea has geographical advantages meaning that Mediterranean's ports are the gateway to Europe, Asia, and Africa. These advantages offer more perspectives for shipping companies but in the meantime more interest in the area that brings challenges as well. The Mediterranean Shipping Summit 2021 Istanbul edition is intended to focus on opportunities and challenges of the Mediterranean Sea as well as stimulate the integration of Turkish Shipping Industry to International Markets. After "IMO 2020 Regulation" the new era will start in the Shipping industry. So this year we will pick the "Future" as the theme for the summit's agenda. Be part of our networking event in order to be aware of recent activities of the
